

Biography – Managing Director C&L

- Andre Coleman ● Andre is the founder and managing director of C&L Receivables Management N.V. (“C&L”) (1964)
- Responsible for receivables
management
- Prior to founding C&L Andre was a member of the credit committees of ING Lease Belgium and Scania Finance Belgium
 - He is specialist in working capital management and his field of expertise is among others in reengineering credit management processes
 - Andre is 4-lingual (Dutch, German, English and French) and is a credit director with pan-European experience of implementing credit & collection strategies which also includes a broad experience in managing and training credit controllers and credit managers
 - He has experience in the assessment and implementation of credit management software in various organisations in different businesses
 - Since 2000 Andre was involved in several pan-European projects of implementing and improving credit management and working capital processes
 - Andre holds a master degree in economics of the University of Leuven and an executive MBA of Flanders Business School