

Biography – Director

Nico Gunning (1961)

Responsible for operations, finance & control

- Before Nico started his work for Principal Company he has been a consultant and interim manager mainly in the banking industry. His focus is development of back-offices, Front-back-office integration and development of (financial) management information. His main interest lays in the field of the combination of Business Process Management, Finance and IT.
- Projects he was responsible for:
 - Structure processes between stock brokers and their back-offices in asset management.
 - To outsource various back office task to banks for an asset management firm.
 - Shorten the financial and accounting processes for a consultancy firm
 - Development of business planning tools like contract management, budgeting (Dutch Ministry of Defense)
 - Building and implementing a new strategy round cash handling operations (ING Bank)
 - Process design and automation of the securities trade departments (ING)
 - Project management of various quality improvement programs (ISO, EFQM) in government and IT companies
 - Development of an audit system based on the Act on the Supervision of the Securities Trade 1995 and other regulations for an asset management firm.